QUALITY & SUSTAINABILITY

About MGM

Mediterranean Green Market is a commercial platform promoted by Spanish small farmers and cooperatives to distribute our products all over the world. We are committed to quality products and sustainability.

We are lovers of the Mediterranean culture, its gastronomy and its unique nature and our mission is to share these values with the rest of the world with a fundamental premise: its conservation.

We create a comprehensive internationalization system for family businesses and cooperatives, guaranteeing the best service to our clients: from product development, quality control, safety and certification protocols required for each market.

Our commitment is to bring a high quality product, subjected to the highest quality controls, from the producer to your warehouse.

We bring you the real taste of Spain...

EVOO & Vinegars

Spain is the main olive oil producer in the world. MGM brings the best organic and conventional selection.

Our cooperatives and family business from Extremadura and La Mancha, based on a circular economy, produce this golden liquid that encourage plates and dressings around the world.

Experience, tradition and confidence are perfectly combined to get our exquisite extra virgin and pure olive oils and vinegars, organics or conventional, but always delicious. Come across new varieties, nuances and richness from the country with the greatest heritage.

Olives & pickles

Our special selection of appetizers will captivate you, big and flavored olives and cocktails with specially selected varieties and stuffed.

Our olives have become a precious thing, low environmental impact packed in delicate bottles and exquisite jars have become the jewel of the fruits.

Spanish olive trees are a source of surprises, olive pates, jams, natural cosmetic and more to discover...

Canned food and pates

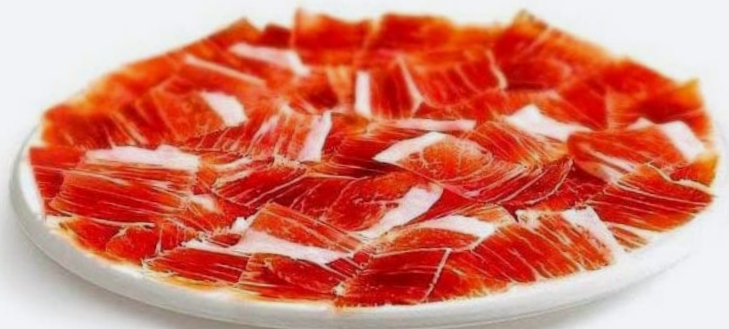

Our products come from small artisan producers who have maintained the recipes and knowledge of past generations, all prepared handmade and totally delicious.

Ham and sausages

“La Dehesa”, there is no other place in the world where pigs live so freely without stress, camping to its widths per million and a half hectares of oak wood.

Discover our chorizo, salchichón and other meat cuts of the most exclusive products.

Spices & herbs

One of the richness of Spanish gastronomy is the unique spices used to cook, that gives special taste to our plates, starting from the paella and following the marinated fishes and meats.

Our smoked paprika D.O “La Vera” is an artisan miracle that makes the humble pepper one of the most intense condiments of Spanish fusion gastronomy.

Rice, pulses, pasta and tomato sauces

The essential role played by pulses and rice in the diet of the different Mediterranean people through the ages, has left a deep mark on Spanish cuisine, where an enormous variety of soups and stews containing them, can be found in every corner of the country.

We are always trying to make our products special, taking in to account the purity of the water that irrigates the fields, the fertilizer-free productions, adequate varieties and organic crops that are favorable to biodiversity and favor the conservation of unique natural spaces.

Nuts & figs

The most special selection of organic nuts and fig chocolates exceptional for their thin skin, intense flesh sweetness and traditionally harvested and sun desiccated.

Honey & jams.

MGM honey is unique and artisan. In southwestern Spain, there are a few traditional beekeepers who take their hives only to protected areas, far from any contamination and who produce this sweet delicacy manually.

Find our special selection of jams, elaborated in a completely unique and natural way, according to traditional Spanish recipes.

Biscuits & snacks

Traditional biscuits handcrafted with natural ingredients. Make your breakfast and tea a special moment with a full range of snacks tailored to different tastes and needs. Organic, gluten free or sugar free, enjoy our selection!

Coffee

MGM is based on eco-efficiency and eco-design principles, seeking to promote sustainability at the origins, reduce waste and inefficiencies in the production process to finally get a perfect blend for a positive day, an exciting combination of aromatic varieties with character, in a beverage which awakens your senses.

Wines

A careful selection of boutique wines, conventional and organic ready for the most demanding markets. Tempranillo and Garnacha might be the most popular grape varieties but you may try how the Syrah or even the Cabernet Sauvignon perform in the different regions of Spain, one of the World leading wine producers.
